Like a pilgrimage, Cursillo is for the faithful. It is not intended as a means to bring newcomers into faith. Participants in a Cursillo weekend should feel comfortable with Anglican ministry.

Application to Attend Cursillo

Cursillo is a world-wide movement of the Anglican-Church. The Movement began in Spain within the Catholic Church in the late 1940's and has spread around the world. It was brought to Australia in 1979. It was introduced to Tasmania in 1995.

At Cursillo, there is an atmosphere of joy with singing, laughter, times of silence and reflection, Eucharist, talks, discussions, and creative activities interspersed with prayer.

Cursillo is a 'short course / experience in Christian living', but it doesn't end with the conclusion of the three days.

The experience is maintained through small regular group meetings, diocesan gatherings, and individual prayer and study, which focus on living out one's faith. Ask your sponsor about the post-Cursillo programme.

The Cursillo weekend will involve participation in discussion groups. To help us plan for these some personal details would be helpful:

Organisations in which you are involved:

Interests, hobbies, or special qualifications:

It is important that you should be comfortable and relaxed at your Cursillo. You will be sharing sleeping quarters. If you have any personal issues which may affect your participation please discuss these with your sponsor or rector. If you are on any medication, have special dietary requirements or sleep issues (eg: CPAP) which you think the team should know about, please indicate here.

A few weeks after the Cursillo weekend, a Welcome Ultreya will be held on Saturday July 5th. We will welcome new Cursillistas and encourage all Cursillistas in their post-Cursillo life. If you are not sure about the post-Cursillo program, talk to your sponsor.
